Dodge City Election Next Tuesday

Home Rule Is The Big Issue At Fitzgerald

The people of Fitzgerald School District No. 7 in Warren Township will have an opportunity to choose at an election next Tuesday, Nov. 4 between the recommendations of divergent groups on the proposal to incorporate the school district area into a city, with a suggested name of "Dodge City."

Four organizations lined up in opposition are the Home Owners

Thousands To Play at Civic Parties

Witches may be riding their broomsticks, ghosts may be shrieking, and Hob-goblins may be hobbling tomorrow night, Oct. 31, when Halloween rolls around once more, but we can rest assured that most of our children will be safe and sound, having the time of their lives at one of the many sponsored parties being held all over the county.

Police and recreation directors are urging 100 per cent cooperation on the part of parents, stressing the parents' responsibility for damages when property destruction is involved, or persons injured, which so often has been the case. It is hoped that parties of this sort will eliminate the 'help the poor' begging and keep the children off the streets.
